About Camp K12

Camp K12 is a Global Online School for 21st century skills founded by an MIT/Harvard computer science alum (ex-Google, McKinsey) and the Ex-CEO of Apple India. We're teaching Coding and STEM to kids age 5 - 18 via LIVE, interactive online sessions (1-on-1 and small-group) that take place in our gamified virtual classrooms and work 10x better than status quo.

We raised a seed round in March 2020, scaled revenue 120x as our team grew from 25 to 280 people. 400k+ students taught, looking to build a $1B+ global online school of the future, a one-stop shop for 21st century parent/student needs including learning, credentialing, games/community and more.

The core team hails from Wharton, Bain, BCG, IIT, and Teach For India and includes industry veterans from large 2-sided market systems like Uber, Ola, Swiggy, and Amazon.

Role

We're scaling up our International Biz, with an initial focus on US / North America and looking for a talent acquisition intern to support this new market entry with the right talent. We will be offering a stipend of INR 10,000 per month.

You'd be working directly with our Founder and the CEO's Office and own the colleague relations lifecycle.
