

Research Analyst & Policy Specialist

We at Inclusive Minds are seeking motivated and efficient individuals, skilled in the various research methodologies and adept at effective communication to join our research and policy team. The research and policy vertical aims to deconstruct complex socio-economic, legislative, demographic, and allied topics to streamline the information flow and aid in building towards better policy building and implementation.

Responsibilities

- Synthesise key insights from team to generate policy analysis and recommendations and convert them into deliverables
- Understand and analyse emerging socio-economic and political trends and evaluate the effects of associated policies and laws
- Build research capability to effectively analyse and report on quantitative and qualitative data
- Database Management to build, maintain, warehouse and protect a thorough repository of information and data sets

Desired Qualification and Experience

- Bachelor/Masters Degree in Public Policy, Politics or Economics from Tier 1 institutions.
- Prior experience working in policy research or allied sectors will be preferred
- Subject matter expertise in either agriculture, economics, social justice, industrial, infrastructure, trade or governance
- Possess strong analytical skills and knowledge of economics to be able to parse data and unpack microeconomic as well as macroeconomic concepts
- Excellent written and verbal communication, presentation and negotiation skills
- Professional working proficiency in the use of MS Office Suite and G Suite
- Critical thinker, problem solver and solution oriented approach
- Proficiency in Telugu and Kannada will be preferred

Interested candidates may write to us at careers@inclusiveminds.in

Candidates will report to our offices based out of Delhi, Hyderabad, and Bengaluru

Remuneration will be commensurate with experience and per industry standards.